

Procurement Date: Laterality: Tumor consists of papillae having an fine fibrovascular stalk or folliculae covered by a single to mutiple layers of cuboidal epithelial cells. Tumor invades in capsule or vessle or begnin tissue. The cells tend to maintain their polarity. Nulei are quite regular and contain finely dispersed chromatin, or intranuclear grooves. There are some psammoma bodies. Tumor is hemorrhage, fibrous and invasion of lymphocytes.

Path Report: Tumor type: Papillary carcinoma

Tumor size: 1.5cm in diameter

Laterality: left

Focality: unifocal

Extrathyroidal extension: no

ICD-O-3

carcinoma, papillary, thyroid

8260/3

site: thyroid, NOS

C73.9

7-20-12 rp

Criteria	Yes	No
Diagnosis Discrepancy		X
Primary Tumor Site Discrepancy		X
HIPAA Discrepancy		X
Prior Malignancy History		X
Dual/Synchronous Primary Noted		X
Case is (circ):	QUALIFIED	DISQUALIFIED
Reviewer: CHC	Date reviewed: 7/16/12	W. H. H.